HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Well, some of San Diego's gifts to the sports world had themselves a field day last week.

That eminent scholar from Hoover High, Ted Williams, hit eight for nine, including a pair of homers. Bobby Smith, former State College pole-vaulter, soared 14 feet, 8 inches at the Fresno Relays to tie Rev. Bob Richards, the former Olympic titleholder And Don Larsen, a Point Loma High product, now pitching for the Baltimore Orioles, fogged 'em past the New York Yankees for a three-hit victory.

I phoned Don Giddings, Point Loma coach, to make sure it was the same Larsen. He reminded me, too, that Bro. Larsen had been a basketball star as well as a pitcher for the Pointers.

Giddings has started spring football practice. He has a good-looking bunch of boys up from Dana Junior High; he isn't predicting anything sensational next fall, but after that—well, let's just say he's optimistic.

As to Bobby Smith, I'll bet his father, Ralph, is busting his buttons this week. Ralph was a champion pole-vaulter himself at San Diego High, and if I know him, he's looking forward to the next Olympic Games.

Speaking, not from first-hand experience but from what I've observed, there's probably nothing so soul-satisfying to a male parent as watching his son perform brilliantly on the athletic field.

The late Gordon Thompson, superior court judge, lived to see his boy, Gordon Jr., follow in his cleat-marks as a rugged guard at Point Loma High.

Judge Thompson played guard at SDHS when it was the only high school in town.

My favorite San Diego High football team was the 1924 edition, probably because my brother played in the line that year, although it was a championship outfit. John Perry, lately at Dana, was the coach. Dave Reed, who lives on Udal St., sparkled at halfback.

Others included Bert Ritchey, the colored comet; Russ Saunders, later a great back at USC, and Frank Ribbel, killed in World War II.

This seems to be a sports column, so I'll continue it that way unless my slow-moving train of thought is derailed by something of great social significance.

Just for fun, let's flush a few more old footballers from the brush on Point Loma. City Attorney J. F. DuPaul was a halfback at San Diego High. John Hobbs, jeweler, played fullback at Arizona. Dr. Eugene Stephenson, dentist, was an end at State College.

Doc Stephenson grabbed his phone one day, not long ago, and invited a flock of ex-Aztecs over to see an old teammate who had dropped out of the wild blue yonder.

This was Lee Wulff, who flies around in his private plane to shoot movies of hunting and fishing, and then shows them on the national lecture circuit.

The color films he unreeled at Doc Stephenson's were sensational. I haven't been hunting or fishing for many years, from choice, but Wulff's action shots made me drool.

Sometime I'd like to introduce Lee Wulff to Al Wolf. Al Wolf, of Ocean Beach, commodore of the Outboard Boating Club, is quite a fisherman himself, and probably would enjoy hearing about the Atlantic salmon and the giant tuna which Lee Wulff, of Shushan, N. Y., caught with rod and reel in Newfoundland waters.

Outboards Race To Catalina Sat.

The Outboard Boating Club of San Diego will be represented by about 25 entries in the second annual cross-channel race to Catalina Saturday, according to Commodore F. A. Wolf of Ocean Beach.

Wolf will enter his own boat in the race. It starts from the foot of Golden Ave., Long Beach at a new launching ramp, and all boats must be water-borne by 8 a.m.

Trophies will be awarded the winners at Avalon Pier at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Beautification Week To Be Observed Here

"This area is a beauty spot and tourist attraction and we want to keep it that way," said Harry La Dou, president of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce, yesterday.

He announced the O. B. Chamber would cooperate with the S. D. Chamber which is sponsoring San Diego Beautification Week May 21-31. Steve Sulek has been named chairman for the local "clean-up" campaign.

"Our beaches, sidewalks and streets should be kept clean," said La Dou.

"The San Diego Beautification Week program," said Joseph E. Dryer, general chairman, "is the physical expression of community pride and better living in action. Here's what you can do to help:

"Clean up, paint up, fix up and plant up. Do these things to your home and property, and urge your friends, neighbors and business firms to do the same. Cooperate with civic groups and organizations to help make San Diego beautiful, clean and neat."

Dryer pointed out that the program safeguards health, promotes safety, prevents fires, improves property, stimulates business and increases employment.

RUSSELL LIGHT WINS AUTO IN YELLOW DERBY

Deep sea anglers took 3187 yel. lowtail and 5449 log barracuda in the first week of qualifying in the second period of the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby, but it was two Point Loma-Ocean Beach area fishermen who held the spotlight.

The first fishoff by the 100 high anglers in the first period of the derby was held last Wednesday, and the winner was Russell Light, 3896 Rosecrans St., with a 33 pound 14 ounce yellow. Runner-up was Carrol Shive, of Downey, with a 33-9. Light won the automobile which topped the period prizes and Shive a boat, motor and trailer.

Other fishoff winners were: Hy Takano, Los Angeles, 28-7; Dan S. Bodie, Chula Vista, 27 pounds; T. Kato, Huntington Beach, 22-12; Enar Lowenburg, San Diego, 20-14; Jucile Brotton, San Diego, 17-13, and Jed Welsh, Long Beach, 17 pounds.

Oliver P. Snare, 3750 Narragansett, bagged the largest qualifier of the week and the largest fish taken by derby contestants this season. It was a 40 pound 14 ouncer, and was the first yellowtail ever landed by Snare, Even so, it was closely pressed by another lunker of 39 pounds 5 ounces caught by William E. Rice, of Chula Vista, who was fishing from the same boat.

Red hot fishing at the Islands took the play away from the kelp beds, but anglers still were doing very well on bass and small whites there.

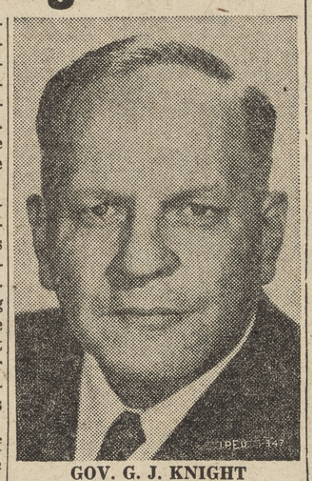
Governor Knight Busy On Long-Range Plans



GOV. G. J. KNIGHT

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight continues to set new long-range policies for his administration looking toward the day when California will have the greatest population of any state in the nation.

In campaigning around the state, the Governor made these disclosures in recent days:

"Last year, 88,000 children under 18 years of age were arrested in California," he said in Los Angeles at a bi-partisan luncheon given to him by 1,000 women. "Some 28,000 of these young offenders were brought before our juvenile courts . . . We must find better ways to keep our children out of trouble. Institutional confinement alone is not the answer."

The Governor told members of American Legion that no state ever faced a bigger school-building program. "We must construct an average of 100 classrooms a week from now until the end of 1960," he added. "And, some where we must find at least 100,000 additional teachers to handle all these new classrooms and students."

Other policy statements by Gov. Knight:

"Here in California, we have over 2,000,000 men and women who have served in the armed forces of our country. Our state has recognized its responsibility to these returned servicemen by maintaining a broad veterans program—farm and home loans, educational assistance, employment rights, veterans homes and personal services."

"We have made a great many operating economies, and we are studying other economies which could not be placed in effect immediately. Our objective is to forestall new or additional taxes and at the same time provide a sound financial structure for the services essential to the well-being of the people of California."

"With regard to unemployment, I am confident that the 1954 peak in California has been passed. When our April total is compiled, I believe we will find an improvement of at least 20,000 from that of March. This marks the beginning of a recovery from the seosonal low point we have had during the past few months."

"California continues to grow at the rate of 500,000 people each year. It seems almost certain we will have at least 14,500,000 people by 1960 and 16,500,000 by 1965. This means increasing demands for more goods, services, public works, and housing. The very growth of the state will create more markets and more jobs."

Will Our Beaches Be Polluted? Scientists May Provide Answer

Delinquent Control Is Aim Of City

In line with the delinquency control program of the City Social Service Department, D. B. Vance, field reprecentative, is available for consultation with parents three days a week at the Ocean Beach Community Center.

Vance is there Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 11 a.m. to noon, and will remain after 12 o'clock if necessary.

He is one of six field representatives throughout the city; he covers the entire Peninsula area.

Prevention of juvenile delinquency is the aim of the Department of Social Service. The program is focused on strengthening family life and promoting the healthy early emotional development of children.

"A child's character," said Vance, "is moulded or crippled between the ages of 4 and 10." He indicated that scientific research shows it is too late to do much for a juvenile delinquent 16 or 17 years old.

"The juvenile gangs in San Diego are fairly well under control now," said Vance.

He said the Department of Social Service program combines five functions—case finding, parent education, group guidance, counseling families, and public information.

League Of Women Voters Convention

With the League of Women Voters holding its state convention at U. S. Grant Hotel this week, Mrs. Harry A. Williams, of Palo Alto, state president, was entertained with other officers at a reception in the San Diego Club.

Multiple Sales Gets Results

Carl Ackerman, realtor, of 1259 Rosecrans Blvd., reports the sale of the George A. Strep residence in Yacht Club Terrace to Dr. and Mrs. Lyle S. Powell. The Powells have recently sold their home at 311 San Fernando, La Playa.

As an example of successful operation of the Point Loma-Ocean Beach Multiple Listing, Ackerman reports the sale of the Strep property as the tenth made by his office this month through the Multiple Service.

Vehicle Check Run Two More Weeks

With the annual May vehicle check program moving into its final two weeks under the sponsorship of the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council, more than 90,000 "100% SAFE" windshield stickers have been placed in the hands of inspecting authorities, Fred H. Rohr, Council president, has announced.

"We are hopeful that every automobile in San Diego County will be checked for safety conditions during our drive," Rohr said. He pointed out that cars checked in mandatory road blocks set up by the police departments and the California Highway Patrol showed that over 45% were not in good enough condition to receive the Council's "100% SAFE" sticker.

Rohr urged all drivers whose cars showed mechanical deficiencies to have them taken care of immediately and to get and display the safe driving sticker. He pointed out that this not only would benefit the Council's campaign, but it would increase th eindividual safety factor of each driver and that not until all cars are in safe condition will the menace of death or injury due to mechanical failure be eliminated.

Howser Hits Officials Who Conceal The Facts

Former Attorney-General Fred N. Howser, candidate for that office at the June 8 primary election, declared this week that the greatest threat to the maintenance of democracy in the U.S. is the creping threat of bureaucracies and public officials aiming at the curtailment of public information.

"We are and have been developing a "caste system", Howser charged. "Something new in our public history. It is composed of two segments of the population, those who gain their livelihood from public payrolls and those who do not.

"The latter support the former, but one would not think so to watch public employes in their brusque treatment of the citizen and the press. The press, radio and TV are encharged with the gathering and dissemination of vital public information. It is important that the public has correct and adequate knowledge of public business, but various public officials seemingly are intent on cutting off public information at its source.

"The bureaucrat and members of his entourage have come to look down on the plain average citizen with contempt and indifference. They would wrongfully deny him that which is his, information pertaining to public offices and public affairs.

"Recent history has taught us that the first step in the establishment of totalitarian forms of government is the cutting off of truthful, intelligent public information. The people must be accurately acquainted with the facts of government if they are, through voting, to be able to maintain government on an honest and efficient basis.

"I believe that the people, not the bureaucrats, are the real bosses of government.

"Believing this, I pledge to the voters of California that if I am elected Attorney-General, I will personally lead a crusade during my tenure to the end that all branches of California government will properly disseminate public information to the various media engaged in its gathering."

Dentists Urge Defeat Of Proposition 'A'

Two local dentists this week urged the Point Loma Kiwanis Club and the Ocean Beach PTA to study carefully the wording of Proposition A on the June 8th ballot. A yes vote opposes the continued fluoridation of San Diego's city water supply. A no vote favors fluoridation.

Both men spoke in favor of fluoridation and urged a vote against the proposition.

Dr. Carl Ackerman told the Point Loma Kiwanis Club, "In my opinion fluoridation is the greatest step in San Diego's public health history. The American Dental Association has hailed it as the greatest dental discovery of the century."

Dr. Ackerman said fluoridation had proved itself very effective in reducing tooth decay among children wherever it had been given a long trial. He said that in Grand Rapids, Mich., after eigtht years of fluoridation, tooth decay among six-year-olds had dropped by more than 80 per cent. He said decay among 16-year-olds had also dropped even though they were eight years old and had most of their permanent teeth when the fluoridation program began.

Dr. Harold Amrein told the Ocean Beach PTA, "Fluoridation has proven itself safe as well as effective in curbing tooth decay." He cited vital statistics from Grand Rapids, Mich., showing that in eight years of fluoridation the death rates for cancer, heart disease, intracranial lesion (stroke) and nephritis (kidney disease) had all dropped.

A 'Diluted' Statement Expected By Tom Drake

The Sewer Bond Research Committee, headed by Tom Drake of Ocean Beach, apparently hit the jackpot yesterday.

Drake reported he had learned on unimpeachable authority that scientists of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography, concerned by the way promoters of the 16-million-dollar sewer bond issue were quoting them, have prepared a statement regarding the possible contamination of beaches from the proposed Point Loma outfall and destruction of kelp beds.

"This statement," said Drake, "undoubtedly was sent to City Manager O. W. Campbell this week. I was told by Roger Revelle, director of Scripps, that it would be released Friday at 2 p.m.

"I'm afraid that a diluted version of the Scripps findings will be released by the City in line with the efforts to put over the sewer bond issue at the June 8 election."

Drake said he had documentary proof that last Wednesday a Scripps microbiologist who is a leader in his field said that in his opinion the effluent from the Point Loma sewage plant outfall would have to be chlorinated to prevent contamination of the beaches.

"Chlorination is not an integral part of the City's plan," said Drake. "And I understand it is expensive and not always effective."

A Scripps scientist also made another point, according to Drake. This was that five sewage outfalls in southern California have been laid into the sea in areas where kelp was present, as it is off Point Loma.

In four out of five locations the kelp has disappeared—at Tijuana, Huntington Beach, Santa Monica and north of Point Fermin, it was said. "Santa Barbara alone still has kelp."

MORE FROM SCRIPPS

Drake further quoted a Scripps scientist as having said that it seems logical to include in the sewer cost estimate the probable loss of our kelp industry and our extensive sport fishing in the Point Loma kelp beds.

At a meeting of the Outboard Boating Club recently, attended by 200 members, Drake produced a copy of the minutes of a March 29 meeting held by the Metropolitan San Diego Sewer Bond Committee's publicity group.

Drake revealed that a "Package Plan" for selling the bond issue to the public was presented at that meeting. This stated that the "package" would have to be sold with appeals to reason and to the emotions of fear, pleasure, pride, and to the eye and nose."

A sample, Drake said, "of how they will appeal to the emotion of fear, was the Metropolitan committee's statement last week that epidemics of intestinal disease threatened the entire San Diego area if the sewerage problem is not solved soon."

With Ed Blom, assistant to City Manager Campbell, scheduled to address the La Jolla Town Council last night, Drake tried to arrange for the Sewer Bond Research Committee to be represented.

"The Town Council manager told me," said Drake, "that Blom would not debate the question or appear on the same program with the opposition."

Drake said he was told that the Town Council's board of trustees, headed by Dr. Revelle of Scripps, had voted in April to indorse the sewer bonds and directed this indorsement be brought up before the council at its May meeting, last night, for approval.

Meanwhile, the Metropolitan San Diego Sewer Bond Committee this week announced a mounting number of endorsements for the sewer bond proposal to be voted on June 8.

"Especially significant," said Chester L. Dorman, a co-chairman of the committee, "are the endorsements from professional and technical societies whose memberships are better able to appraise the merits of the project than the average layman."

Among the more recent endorsements announced were ones from the San Diego chapters of the General Contractors of America, American Society for Civil Engineers, Society of Residential Appraisers, California Sewage and Industrial Wastes Association and the Engineers Club of San Diego.

"Planning the right kind of a sewerage system is an undertaking requiring the highest degree of skill and experience," Dorman pointed out, "so it is reassuring that the recommendations of the engineers who made the survey are so completely endorsed by those so able to intelligently criticize the plan."

Sewage disposal can become a heavy municipal expense if the system is not properly planned, Dorman said. Central location of the plant, full use of natural advantages such as gravity rather than pumping and the degree of sewage treatment required all importantly affect disposal costs, he pointed out.

METRO STATEMENT

The engineers also made many other studies in connection with low cost operations and fully reported on the possibilities, it was said. Dorman cited the Rawn Report on such activities as water reclamation, which is provided for when water costs warrant the conversion of the present treatment plant for that purpose. Production of fertilizer from sludge was said to be impractical now as the conversion cost would be greater than the the selling cost.

"One of the most important cost factors is the adoption of a core plan for the entire San Diego Bay area. The Rawn Report estimated that the City of San Diego alone will save $4,910,000 within 20 years from the core plan as compared to system cost of disposing of sewage only for the city proper."

Other communities which eventually would participate in the core plan would have another $3,534,000, it was estimated, over their separate efforts to handle their growing sewage disposal problems.

"San Diego voters can feel sure," Dorman declared, "that they are voting on a sound, economical sewerage system when they go to the polls June 8."

Keller Relates Narcotic Traffic Data To Public

After five years of repeatedly asking both the state and federal governments for help in controlling the narcotic traffic in San Diego we are now for the first time approaching a situation where we have sufficient personnel and facilities to cope with the problem, Dist. Att'y. Don Keller declared in a talk before State College faculty members at Scripps Cottage.

"Five years ago," Keller said, "I saw the need for more trained narcotics agents here and petitioned Sacramento and Washington for them.

"Help was not immediately forthcoming, but through my efforts and those of our legislators and congressmen who supported my efforts we now have stationed here both a federal and a state narcotics agent to augment our county force of 10 men assigned to fight the drug menace. It is my hope and expectation that we have another state agent here soon.".

Talbot Endorses Easton For Office

Training or experience in accounting is not an essential qualification for the office of County Tax Collector, Wilbur W. Easton, who resigned as Chief Deputy Collector to campaign for th etop job, declared in a talk before the Mission Beach Women's Republican Club.

Easton asserted that although three other candidates for the job publicize the fact that they are accountants, the Tax Collector's office has use for one accountant among its some 90 employees and that one merely to record daily receipts.

"I have been in the tax collection office for more than 21 years and for the last six years have hold the post of Chief Deputy Collector and Assistant Administrator under Raymond B. Talbot who is resigning."

Easton quoted from a letter written him by Talbot which said, in part:

"I have received your resignation as Chief Deputy Collector and would keenly feel the loss of your valuable assistance if your resignation were prompted by any other reason than for you to qualify on the ballot at the forthcoming primary election as a candidate for Tax Collector.

"Since I am not seeking reelection there is no one I would rather see elected as my successor than you because of your intimate knowledge of and experience in that office."

"Signed, Raymond B. Talbot, Tax Collector."

Loma Council PTA Installs Officers At Luncheon Meeting Held Today

Loma Council PTA held its annual installation of officers today at a luncheon at Kona Kai Club. The chorus from Cabrillo school sang during the luncheon. Mrs. J. Allen Hodges installed the following officers: President, Mrs. Harold Smith; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Melvin Lovelace; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Guy Keller; Secretary, Mrs. Paul Willoughby, Jr.; Treasurer, Mrs. Floyd Fischer; Auditor, Mrs. John Rumsey; Parlimentarian, Mrs. Dale Prescott; Historian, Mrs. Wm. Emerson.

Highligths of the 55th annual State Convention were given by the unit presidents who attended the State Convention in San Francisco on April 21, 22 and 23rd. Those attending were: Mrs. Tony Zarkos from Cabrillo PTA; Mrs. Alfred Walls and Jake Schriener from Dewey PTA; Mrs. Lawrence Jensen from Frontier PTA; Mrs. Leonard Allen from Loma Portal PTA; Mrs. L. M. Shirley and Mrs. Joe Fischer from Ocean Beach PTA; Mrs. Ormal Sprungman and Mrs. Wm. Jorgensen from Silvergate PTA and Mrs. James Jones from Sunset View PTA.

Ninth District PTA was represented by one hundred and seventy delegates of which eleven were from Loma Council PTA. The total registered attendance for convention was 3972 delegates and visitors.

Since our California Parent-Teacher Magazine plays a big part in PTA life the annual awards were made at the first opening session. Ninth district came home with one Gold Seal Association award and six of the Honorable mentions; one of which Loma Council is very proud, Mrs. Gene Austin of Ocean Beach PTA.

Mrs. P. D. Bevil, State PTA President in the opening address not only gave us our theme for the coming year but elaborated on the possibilities of "Progress Through Action". She gave us such challenges as using the interest and talent of all our members; studying the needs of our own neighborhoods, of stressing Spiritual values and Family Life.

Mrs. Rollin Brown (Los Angeles) first Vice President of the National Congress installed the newly elected officers of which two are from Ninth District PTA Third Vice Presidnet, Mrs. G. D. Edwards and Recording Secretary, Mrs. Harold R. Hartley. Mrs. Brown said it is our community which gives us and our youngsters a sense of identity and security; a sense of belonging.

At the closing session, Dr. Theodore Palmquist, Minister, Methodist Church, Los Angeles, used as the topic for his address "Life Taxes Its Inventory!"

La Jolla Playhouse To Offer Reduced Prices This Year

Exciting theatre entertainment for less cost was the principal topic of discussion during conferences between John Swope, Executive Producer of La Jolla Playhouse and members of the local sponsoring committees.

Swope came to La Jolla to attend a meeting and tea of the Women's Committee for La Jolla Playhouse given at the home of Mrs. Louis H. Hunte. He reported on his visit last week with Mel Ferrer, president of La Jolla Playhouse, in New York where Ferrer is co-starring with Academy Award winner Audrey Hepburn in the current Broadway hit, "Ondine".

He disclosed that neither Peck nor Ferrer will be able to be in La Jolla this summer because movie committments will require them in Europe. But, he announced, Miss McGuire, the third member of the Board of Producers will be here and hopes to star in at least one play.

Swope detailed the Playhouse's new policy changes which call for only five productions this summer, each to run two weeks, with tickets at reduced prices.

"This change will enable us to cut our production costs—a saving which we are passing on to the theatre-goers by cutting ticket prices,—it will enable twice as many people to see each play, and it will permit us to be more selective in the choice of our plays and casts," he explained.

Season tickets went on public sale Monday, Swope added.

"This year, for the first time, we are offering a financial advantage to season ticket subscribers by giving them a ten per cent across-the-board discount," he said. "Season tickets will be on sale for one month only, so now is the time to save money and get the seats you want for each of the five plays."

The season begins Tuesday, June 29th, and will run through September 5th.

Alpha Delta Phi 103 Anniversary

The San Diego alumni group of Alpha Delta Pi sorority celebrated its 103rd anniversary with a Founders' Day dinner held at the Farm dining room, 6624 El Cajon Blvd., on Friday, May 14th at 7 p.m. Miss Neva Nye, outgoing president, was toastmistress and officiated at the impressive candlelight ceremony for installation of new officers. The following offirecs were installed: president, Mrs. H. Howard Campbell; vice-president, Mrs. A. R. Brunelli; secretary, Mrs. Orline Stigall; treasurer, Mrs. W. N. Kirshner; Panhellenic delegate, Mrs. R. C. Galbreath, with Mrs. W. N. Kirkshner as alternate delegate.

Much of the bad performance of an older car's ignition system is due to the escape of electrical energy through spark plug cables that have become porous with the passage of time, according to the NAC.

Youth Builds Model Ships As Life's Hobby

An inborn love of ships keeps Don Caldwell always busy on ship models. Since he was nine years old, his dream has been to become a naval architect and designer, and throughout the years, he is 19 now, he has a large collection. He will graduate this year from Point Loma High School, and his dream is still with him to find some organization or business that will accept him as an apprentice in his chosen work.

Don resides with his mother, Mrs. Melba Caldwell at 745 Cordova street. His father lost his life during World War II when the submarine Grunion was lost in Aleution waters.

Ingenuity in both design and materials is many times shown by the young model builder. One of his ships was constructed of flattened-out toothpaste tubes. He will see one of the ships as his model, keep close to its design and then incorporate his ideas. His pride and joy, his largest model he has worked on for many years, and carefully keeps it covered with a cellophane cover. The sails are made of a plastic material, and detailing of the ship is minute.

His enthusiasm in his hobby has spilled over onto two of his neighbors, Bill and Dick Dray who live at 814 Cordova and are the sons of Mrs. Wm. Herring. The boys are now engaged in building a model of an LST for a friend whose husband is overseas, and the model is to be the replica of her husband's ship. They have together constructed an aircraft carrier.

Outstanding examples, such as these three boys should give the older generation the thought that all teen-agers' lives are not in a muddle and they have constructive thought as to what their adult years can bring them. Don definitely wants that naval architectural position. Dick,—well, he is yet a sophomore in Point Loma High School.

"Speeders" speed up line patrolling. Many of Pacific Telephone's long distance lines must cross rugged country that's hard to reach on foot. But in cases where out-of-the-way lines parallel a railroad, telephone crews often patrol them in specially designed speeders like the one above. Summer or winter, these handy little vehicles click off mileage in a hurry, hustle men and equipment to make repairs when they're needed. By saving valuable time, they help us cut costs, hold down the price of telephone service. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Home Show Draws Thousands; Event Closes Sunday PM

Proof that San Diegans are home lovers at heart is being confirmed as thousands enter the Electric Building in Balboa Park where the Home Show & Food Show Jubilee is approaching the end of its exciting nine-day run.

Action keynotes the four divisions comprising the event this year—the Driftwood and Gold Rooms devoted to typical home and building industry displays, the Do-It Yourself Shop, the outdoor exhibit area featuring the Sequoia Home, and the Food Show Jubilee where Martha Logan's "Turn-About" Cooking Schools are attracting capacity audiences.

The "Turn-About" Cooking Schools, starring Martha Logan and her unique line-up of guests from local radio and television stations, are held nightly at 7:30 in the Food Show Jubilee. KCBQ's Bob Regan will concoct Armenian shish kebab Thursday night; Friday's master of marinated pork chops will be Don Howard from KSDO; and Saturday Bill Mesmer, Channel 6, will please the audience with a special dish. Sunday's 2:30 and 7:30 performances feature George Joe, well known Cantonese specialist, with his oriental version of barbecued spare-ribs.

The Home Show runs through May 23 and will be open from 5 to 10:30 p.m. week nights. Hours on Saturday and Sunday will be 1 to 10:30 p.m. The Sequoia Home will be given away at 10 o'clock Sunday night.

Ocean Beach American Legion Auxiliary To Sell Poppies

Ocean Beach Unit 433, American Legion Auxiliary will again sell 2000 hand made crepe-paper Poppies the 28th and 29th of May. Everyone is asked to continue wearing the Poppy through Memorial Day, as a token of gratitude to the men who gave their lives that we may still have a free country.

These poppies may be ill fashioned this year because unskilled hands of hospitalized veterans, who have lost their health, and risked their lives for our Freedom, are now taking the first faltering step back on the road to recovery.

These poppies are made of wire, red crepe paper, fastened with a green paper strip, and are assembled by men of three wars, under the supervision of the California American Legion Auxiliary.

Funds donated by the public are used to pay these men for making the poppy, and to assist financially, those veterans who live with a serious handicap, and for the education of widows and children of deceased veterans and also for temporary aid to needy children of veterans.

"It is a mandate of the National Legion that Poppy funds be allocated to welfare only," stated Unit 433 Poppy chairman Elizabeth Finley as she said the "Unit members will be out early on Friday morning volunteering their time to a good cause. Won't you do your share, Mr. and Mrs. Public, and wear a crepe paper poppy of rememberance?"

FLOOR SHOW—The sound of shattering glass in the vicinity of the kitchen door awoke the family of Cecil Adams, 3033 Voltaire, at 2 a.m. Friday morning. In his haste to meet the intruder, Mr. Adams, who stands six feet four inches tall, slipped on his wife's robe and dashed to the living room where he and his 19 year old son, Don, grabbed with an intoxicated sailor. The noisy melee aroused their house-guests as the intruder was subdued with a brick bat and police rang the doorbell. "Fortunately, the living room rug is rose colored so the blood stains won't show," Mrs. Adams said. And, as their overnight guest left the next day, their parting comment was "Thanks for the entertainment."

THANKS A MILLION—When Congressman Bob Wilson was in town last week he called Don Robinson, superintendent of Cabrillo National Monument, and said, "Who's handling the publicity on enlarging the Monument. I'm getting dozens of letters asking me to introduce a bill." So keep up the good work. Let's help be responsible for enlarging the only national park in our area, the smallest yet most popular in the United States and the park commanding one of the world's most beautiful views. Get on Bob Wilson's mailing list. Write today: Room 115, House Office Building, Washington, D. C. 25.

MORNING COFFEE — Giant fresh strawberries and pineapple slices made a colorful addition to the morning "coffee" table Thursday at the home of Mrs. Verne Sutherland, 3747 Amaryllis Drive, whose party planned for mothers of the seventh grade ballroom dancing class. Small bowls of powdered sugar were handy to "dunk" the strawberries.

SILVER AND GOLD — Old friends and new will honor Mrs. Cliff Felix at a coffee this morning, given by Mrs. Vernon Sherwin, 3420 Ullman St. The Felixes, 3615 Plumosa Drive, are former San Diegans who moved to Texas for several years.

THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT—The lovely name Mr. and Mrs. Robert Godwin, 4943 Niagara St., gave their brand new daughter, born May 14—Kimberly Ann Godwin. She's the granddaughter of Mrs. Naomi Kyle, 5020 Saratoga, and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Anderson, 1076 Hayes Ave. Kimberly Ann has a handsome three-year-old brother, Mark Emil, and three great grandparents, Senora Justa Oros Vuida de Sanora from Sonora,, Mexico; Mrs. Huey Godwin, Norfolk, Virginia; Mrs. James Twiford, San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Feltus of Bloomington, Ind. have purchased a home in the 1000 block on Alexandria Drive. thus bringing them nearer their son, James Pike, and family who live at 1235 Savoy. Mr. Feltus is an aeronautical engineer at Convair.

Lt. G. E. Lutz, USN and Mrs. Lutz, recently returned to the San Diego area from Tacoma, Wash, and for two months they resided at 1315 Locust street. They lived four years ago in Valencia Park. The Lutz are the new owners of the four unit court in the 2200 block on Seaside street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans, 4115 Hill street, accompanied by their children, visited in Los Angeles over the week-end, especially with Mr. Evans' father who last week underwent serious surgery, but is now reported to be slowly on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mikesell and two daughters, Caroline and and Donna Jean, came here from Norfolk, Va. and have purchased a home in the 900 block on Catalina Blvd.

Several years ago Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Craley liver here in their own home on Trumbull street in Point Loma. They made the mistake to leave here and go to Long Beach where they longed for San Diego area again. Now they have returned and purchased a home in the 1100 block on Alexandria Drive. Mr. Craley is a retired painting contractor. Our climate, they say is what brought them back home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beckett and their son, Albin, a junior at Point Loma High School, moved here from Union street in San Diego to their own home on the hill at Santa Monica Ave.

Just out of the Navy is Charles MacKenzie. He and Mrs. MacKenzie and young daughter, Patricia are here from Arlington, Va. and are living in the 5100 block on W. Pt. Loma Blvd. He is a salesman for a welding equipment company.

Vandalism is usually thought to be confined to grownups. It is heartbreaking to hear when pre-school age children are allowed to roam in neighbors' yards destroying plants and flower beds, that take many months to bring to perfection. A retired senior couple on Seaside street, had just such a misfortune last week, when their lath-house was invaded by two young rapscallions. The couple are norotiously kind and understanding to the younger set, and such a catastrophe should be in part rectified.

Ens. Robert King, USN and Mrs. King were married April 6th in Michigan and came here to make their first home. Mrs. King is from Muskegan, Michigan and her husband from Bay City. They are living on W. Pt. Loma Blvd.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nix, formerly of 4741 Bermuda Ave. have moved to the same block on through to Del Mar avenue. Their daughter, Mrs. J. J. Crowson still resides in one of their three units on Bermuda Ave.

Navy orders brought Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Mead here from Bourbon, Ind. and they are living within a block of the ocean in the 5000 block on Muir Ave.

Mrs. Catherine Sparkes Weidel whose home is on Voltaire street, writes the Party Line that she has been in Portland, Oregon for sometime with her son, William Sparkes Weidel, Milk Administrator for the State of Oregon. She expects to return home in a few weeks, but first will spend a two weeks in the desert as a health measure. Our thanks go to Henry Tibbetts who has been sending Mrs. Weidel the NEWS, as she remarks, "Keeping track of the civic affairs."

George Cole, 2273 Seaside St., returned home on Friday from Scripps Hospital where he underwent surgery last Monday. He was only away from his job in the meat department a week.

The Chino ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lownes was the scene of a picnic on Sunday that included most of the employees of the Lownes department store. Enjoying the day were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Richardson and son Larry; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Templeman; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Beach; Mrs. Edna Miller, Norman Lindell; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sprong and son, Kenneth, Jean Comenski, Mr. and Mrs. Levi R. Woodley and Warren Burdine. The hungry crowd completely devoured the turkey and freezers of ice cream provided by the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs Richard J. Derenthal, 4578 Cape May avenue, returned on May 9th from a visit of several days in Minneapolis and St. Paul. They made the visit especially so that the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Derenthal and Mr. Edward Quinn could make the acquaintance with their grandchildren, Paul and Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Garrett and son, Joe of Tulia, Texas, in the two wekes ago to visit with their son, Harvey N. Garrett, and family, 4635 Tivoli St. Since their arrival they have purchased a home on Moana Drive, and will move in on June first.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sharpe and daughter, are this week getting settled at 920 Rosecrans Blvd. They are from East San Diego. Mr. Sharpe is a dealer salesman with a major oil company.

Margaret Whitney Accorded Honor

Business & Professional Women, Mission Bay branch, have chosen one of their members, Mrs. Margaret Whitney, Point Loma realtor, to assume the post of Radio & Televsion Chairman for the Southern District, that extends from Riverside into Mexico including Tia Juana and Ensenada.

The newly elected president of the group is Phyllis Peachman of El Centro. Meetings are held the first Thursday of each month at a waterfront cafe in Pacific Beach. Members also included in the group are Ocean Beach and Point Loma career women.

LEAVE FOR HONOLULU
